Midwest Area Is Crippled By Snowstorm

31-Inch Fall Hits South Dakota City; 8 States Affected

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Crippling wind-blown snow and sleet storms which battered the Midwest over the weekend, leaving a blanket of up to two feet of snow and sheets of ice, blustered into the Northeast today.

Effects of the damaging weather in the eight-state storm belt from the Dakotas to Michigan were widespread. Some areas were virtually paralyzed.

Thirty-one inches of snow covered Sioux Falls, S.D., as the heaviest snow of the season swept eastern South Dakota and southwestern Minnesota.

The storms spread into areas in North Dakota, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Iowa, Illinois and Michigan. They moved into northern Indiana and Ohio and headed northeastward, with heavy snowfall indicated in the northeastern upper lakes to Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

The violent wintry weather which whipped across the nation's midlands from the Rockies created monumental traffic jams. Thousands of motorists were temporarily stranded as strong winds whipped the snow into high drift on highways and streets.

Traffic was sharply curtailed. Many schools called off classes today. Church services were cancelled in many areas Sunday.

Hundreds of secondary roads were blocked. Travel in southern Minnesota was virtually halted. Many airports in Minnesota and South Dakota were closed.

In Wisconsin, up to 150 cars were stalled on a single highway in Sheboygan and Ozaukee counties.

Some 700 ice fishermen, including women and children, were trapped for several hours Sunday on Lake Poygan, near Oshkosh, Wis., as a blinding snowstorm struck the area. They were brought to safety by State Conservation Department workers and volunteers.

Colder weather moved into northern sections of the Midwest. Temperatures dropped to zero in parts of North Dakota and to the teens in other northern areas of the snow belt.

South of the heavy snow zone, a band of freezing rain or drizzle and sleet pelted areas from northern sections of Illinois and Indiana and southern lower Michigan to northwest Ohio. Walking was treacherous in many cities hit by the ice storm.

In Iowa, the northern half of the state was covered with snow ranging up to 2 inches at Rock Rapids. Ice covered the southern half.

Five storm-related deaths were reported, including four in Chicago, and one in Iowa. The deaths were attributed to over-exercising while shoveling snow.

Mrs. Khrush Pleads for Disarmament

NEW YORK (AP)—Speaking English that came through clearly, Nina Khrushchev appealed in a special broadcast to American women for international understanding and complete disarmament.

The Soviet premier's wife, whose words were easily understandable despite her accent, called on Americans Sunday night to lay down their arms and be friends with the Soviet Union.

"War must not be allowed to break out," she said in her 10-minute broadcast beamed by Moscow radio at 2:30 a.m. Monday, Moscow time. "This can be done through general disarmament under strict international control."

Mrs. Khrushchev said she was replying to American women who had written expressing their concern about the danger of war, especially a nuclear conflict.

Echoing her husband's line, she said governments should dump "all weapons into the ocean."

She also echoed the Soviet premier's call for opening the 18-nation disarmament conference in Geneva March 14 at the summit level.

French Label Secret Peace Parley with Algeria Success

PARIS (AP)—French officials said today that secret peace talks with the Algerian rebels had ended, heightening speculation that a cease-fire is imminent in the bloody North African rebellion.

President Charles de Gaulle's Algerian Affairs Minister Louis Joxe, who led the French government negotiators, returned to Paris to give a report.

Diplomatic observers said the French announcement saying the talks had ended almost certainly indicated that an agreement had been reached with the rebels. These observers said if the talks were going to be continued—or if they had broken down—the announcement normally would have said they had been suspended.

A French spokesman officially confirmed for the first time that the talks had taken place between Feb. 11 and 18 on French territory. The site of the crucial conversations was not reported, but

Union Feuding Peace Pact Still Holds Up

BAL HARBOUR, Fla. (AP)—AFL-CIO leaders opening their winter meeting said today the two-month-old armistice between feuding union groups appears to be holding up well.

Rival wings of the 12.5-million member union federation, representing the building trades and industrial union departments, reached a peace pact at a convention here in December.

Union leaders attending the AFL-CIO Executive Council meeting said that the comparative harmony has led to agreement to push joint legislative drives in Congress for measures on which there had been differing enthusiasms before.

Industrial unions reportedly have agreed to back the building trades in supporting amendments to the Davis-Bacon Act to include fringe benefits, such as pensions and welfare funds, along with pay rates in calculating prevailing wages on federal construction projects.

The government requires contractors working on such projects to meet the prevailing wages for the particular areas as determined by the government. Inclusion of fringe benefits would raise the prevailing wage determination and thus make it more certain nonunion contractors must match union-type labor costs.

The industrial unions also have agreed to help push another building trades goal, tightening overtime pay requirements on federal aid construction projects. Here again the aim primarily is to stiffen overtime pay obligations of nonunion contractors.

Only candidates endorsed by the Cuyahoga County Democratic organization are invited to speak at sponsored rallies. DiSalle said he had no plans for attempting to address such meetings.

"I'm not going to do any muscle flexing," he observed.

Steel Leaders Resume Talks

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Formal top-level negotiations resume today in efforts to work out a new contract for basic steelworkers.

Bargaining teams, headed by President David J. McDonald of the United Steelworkers Union and R. Conrad Cooper of U.S. Steel Corp., recessed Saturday after their conferences.

Union negotiators met Sunday to review the three days of work and map plans for the reopening of talks.

The present 30-month pact for some 430,000 basic steelworkers expires June 30. The USW has indicated it is seeking higher wages and improvements in fringe benefits and job security provisions.

Steelworkers average $3.28 an hour under the current pact.

it has frequently been speculated that they were held near the Swiss border.

The announcement said, "The conclusions... will be brought before the government."

The French Cabinet regularly meets on Wednesdays. It was not immediately known whether a special session would be held before Wednesday.

Joxe and two other French ministers met with rebel Vice Premier Belkacem Krim, Foreign Minister Saad Dahlab and two other Algerian rebel officials.

The Algerians had left their Tunis headquarters Feb. 10 to meet the French at a secret location.

Throughout the week optimism reigned both in Paris and Tunis over progress of the talks. But over the weekend there was a note of pessimism with reports from Tunis that difficulties had cropped up.

The French and the Algerians have been coming closer together on a settlement of their 7½-year war of rebellion for some time. On Feb. 5, De Gaulle, scolding right-wing plotters against his rule, expressed hopes before a national television audience that peace with the Algerians would come soon.

In Algeria, however, rightist Europeans vow to keep Algeria French and seek to block its independence through the terrorist Secret Army Organization.

The secret army has pledged itself to a long guerrilla campaign against De Gaulle and against any provisional executive body that would assume control of the French colony.

Cuyahoga Snub Brings Chuckle To DiSalle

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—With tongue in cheek, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle advanced a theory today about Cuyahoga County Democratic organization endorsement of his primary election rival, Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy.

"I expected it," said DiSalle who has been at odds with Ray T. Miller, county Democratic chairman.

"Way down deep, Ray is really for me," the governor told a news conference. "But since he has not had a winner for governor in over 25 years, he didn't want to handicap me by endorsing me."

The governor expressed belief that lack of endorsement would not hurt his chances for re-election in the May 8 election. He added that he had made no campaign plans for Cleveland.

Only candidates endorsed by the Cuyahoga County Democratic organization are invited to speak at sponsored rallies. DiSalle said he had no plans for attempting to address such meetings.

"I'm not going to do any muscle flexing," he observed.

DeGaulle Says Junk A-Arms

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle today urged the world's nuclear powers to destroy all their nuclear weapons and to join in destruction or control of all means of their delivery.

The French president said France is ready to meet with the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union in a disarmament conference for this purpose.

De Gaulle's proposal was contained in a letter to Premier Khrushchev, replying to the Soviet leader's suggestion of a summit conference on disarmament in Geneva next month.

British Guiana Is Quiet, But Uneasy

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (AP)—An uncertain peace settled on this tropical capital today after a siege of rioting, looting and burning. Labor leaders called off their general strike against leftist Prime Minister Cheddi Jagan, but his East Indian followers were reported plotting reprisals in the hinterlands.

British armed forces, hurriedly flown from Jamaica and London on appeal from Jagan, were braced for trouble, although fire-blackened Georgetown was quiet.

Racial tensions between Negroes and East Indians ran high after rioting Negro mobs burned a half-mile square of Georgetown's business center and its East Indian stores last Friday.

The rioting left six dead, scores injured and $11 million property damage.

Jagan, an East Indian himself, gets most of his support from East Indian farmers and workers outside Georgetown. Negroes generally support Forbes Burnham, leader of the People's National Congress party, whom Jagan defeated in last August's election.

Tensions relaxed somewhat Sunday night, with the announcement of labor leaders that they had called off their week-long strike.

The back-to-work call came after the union leaders met three and a half hours with Jagan. One negotiator said Jagan agreed to a series of demands.

A terse radio announcement said the unions, grouping civil servants, government employees and primary schoolteachers, had asked them to return to work with the Trade Union Council also recommending its 12,000 strikers to resume work.

Civil servants and teachers struck for higher wages. The Trades Union Council protested Jagan's plans for higher import taxes and a compulsory savings scheme which the council claimed hurt workers more than the rich.

A Trades Union Council announcement said Jagan promised to impose price controls to prevent importers from passing on duties to consumers and to consider the replacement of the compulsory savings program with a voluntary savings scheme.

Observers said, however, the strike basically was against the leftist leanings of Jagan.

Thailand, U.S. In Accord on Laos Crisis

BANGKOK, Thailand (AP)—Thailand and the United States are "in accord" on efforts to settle the Laos crisis peacefully, U.S. Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said today.

Kennedy, here on a whirlwind 22½-hour visit during his world tour, spent more than an hour in private conversation with Thai Prime Minister Marshal Sarit Thanarat, with Laos as one of their major topics.

In brief comments to newsmen after the meeting in Sarit's office, Kennedy said, "We are hoping—Thailand and the United States—that the matter can be resolved in Laos in a satisfactory manner. We are both in accord on efforts being made" (to reach a settlement).

He declined, however, to be pinned down on whether his reference to efforts meant a U.S.-supported move to form a coalition government for Laos under neutralist Prince Souvanna Phouma.

Thailand is opposed to such a government, fearful that the pro-Communist Pathet Lao led by Souvanna's half brother, Prince Souphanouvong, would eventually gain control of the neighboring Southeast Asia kingdom bringing a threat to Thai security.

U.S. aid to Thailand—which has totaled $220 million plus $300 million more in military assistance over the past 10 years—was reviewed by Kennedy in his talks with government officials.

New Countdown Is Started For Glenn; Weather Better

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A brightening weather picture buoyed hopes today that astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. will be launched toward a round-the-earth orbit Tuesday after months of delays.

At a morning briefing, Project Mercury officials reported "generally improved conditions" in the Atlantic recovery areas where Marine Lt. Col. Glenn's capsule would descend.

The first half of a split two-day countdown was started at 2:30 a.m. The precount was finished at 6 a.m., with both the Atlas booster rocket and Friendship 7 spacecraft described as in "go" condition.

Officials were shooting for a launch between 7:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. Tuesday.

The weather outlook in the Cape Canaveral vicinity gave officials some concern. A cold front preceded by a squall line was advancing into northern Florida this morning. This could leave lingering cloudiness in the cape area, possibly delaying the shot for the 11th time.

However, officials were hopeful holes could be found in the clouds through which the rocket could be fired.

A complete check of the weather was due for about midnight tonight, after which officials were to make a preliminary decision.

"We feel a lot more optimistic today than we did yesterday," said Lt. Col. John A. Powers, spokesman for the astronauts.

"Conservatively I would say the odds are at least 60-40 in our favor."

Powers said one change had been made in the lineup of ships poised to recover Glenn. The aircraft carrier Forrestal has replaced the carrier Constellation in the area—500 miles east of Bermuda—where Glenn would come down if he made only one

Blaze Razes Auto; Lawmen Hint Arson

Hints of arson were disclosed yesterday when a 1962 model car was destroyed by fire near Harrisburg on Route 762 east of Big Darby Creek.

Deputy Sheriff Gene Kerns said a one-gallon can, possibly containing gasoline, was found on the front seat of the demolished auto. The vehicle is owned by the Haydcoy Pontiac firm of Columbus.

Investigation disclosed that the car had been issued to Rolf Simon, a salesman for the Haydcoy firm. He was not found at the scene.

Deputy Kerns said both doors of the auto were open. The blaze was discovered by Roy Hicks.

THE Harrisburg Fire Department was summoned. Firemen said the arson investigation will be continued.

According to Kerns, the vehicle had full power equipment. The loss was estimated at $3,600.

Condemned Ohio Killer Loses Appeal

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court refused today a hearing to Lawrence V. Ferguson, 19-year-old Negro sentenced to death in Ohio in the killing of Benjamin Kaufman in a $5 hold-up of a drug store in Cleveland.

Kaufman, 62, was shot March 4, 1961 in the holdup of Benjamin's drug store.

In petitioning the high tribunal for a hearing, counsel for Ferguson contended the youth was coerced into entering a guilty plea, and was under a mistaken impression that if he entered a guilty plea his maximum penalty would be life imprisonment.

Ferguson was scheduled to die Nov. 10, 1961, but Justice Potter Stewart granted him a stay ending action on his request for Supreme Court hearing.

Once Around Roundtown

WORD HAS been received here from Robert Hoover, the 1960 recipient of the Bob Bowsher Trophy Award, expressing his regrets for being unable to attend the 1962 presentation of the award. Former winners of the award are to be honored during the '62 presentation at intermission of the final county tournament basketball game next Friday.

Hoover is now a varsity eager at Morehead State College, Morehead, Ky.

THERE IS speculation George Hartman, superintendent of Circleville City Schools, is expecting a Presidential visitor. Furnishings in his office at the high school include an old-fashioned rocking chair.

Both Military, Commercial Flights Made

BERLIN (AP)—Allied aircraft flew through the north corridor from Berlin today to counter renewed Soviet pressure on the vital air lanes, informed sources said.

Military and commercial transports thrust through the Berlin-Hamburg corridor over Communist East German territory, the informants said.

The Western operation was designed to assert Allied rights in face of the renewal of harrassing tactics by the Red air force.

Western commanders gave orders for the transports to fly deliberately below the level the Soviets want for their exclusive use for a three-hour period.

For the seventh time since it started harassing Western air links to Berlin on Feb. 7, the Soviet air force, told the Berlin Air Safety Center Sunday night it was reserving air space up to 7,500 feet in the north corridor leading to Berlin from Hamburg.

Allied control officers rejected the Soviet flight plan and ordered military transports to stand by.

The Soviet move came after a weekend pause in the Berlin air crisis. Sunday morning, Moscow announced it had rejected a three-power protest that maneuvers of the Red air force in the corridors were dangerous and illegal.

The Allies insist that air safety rules, in force for 17 years, require notification of each individual flight through the three 20-mile wide corridors linking Berlin with Frankfurt, Hannover and Hamburg.

The Western powers charged the Russians were trying to change the rules by making "block bookings" for the Red air force. The Allies do not dispute Soviet contentions the Red air force has equal rights in the corridors but they insist on carrying out the safety rules.

The Allies complained to the Kremlin that Soviet jet fighters buzzed Western aircraft in the corridors last week.

The West is making its firm stand because of the extreme importance of the air routes to Berlin. Only by air can travelers go to Berlin and back without submitting tickets at Communist control points on highways and railroads.

East Germany has charged for months that the West has misused the air corridors. The Red regime says it is illegal for Western commercial airliners to fly to Berlin, because, they claim, the corridors were provided only for Allied military garrisons.

A young driver and passenger received minor injuries in a one-car crash 8:30 p.m. Saturday on the Circleville-Tarleton, Morris Church Salem Roads.

Treated at Berger Hospital for a cut on the right knee was Elaine Goldschmidt, 16, of 901 Atwater Ave., driver of the auto. The passenger, Cheryl Mumaw, 16, Route 3 suffered a laceration on the forehead. Two other passengers in the car were not hurt.

Miss Goldschmidt said she failed to see a stop sign in time. The car skidded and struck a tree.

Deputy Sheriff Dixie Watters said the auto was heavily damaged.

Ambulance, Car Collide

Suffering minor lacerations of the face was Mrs. Ned Riffel, Route 1. Police said the ambulance was taking Mrs. Riffel and her young child to Children's Hospital in Columbus on an emergency run.

The Mader ambulance was driven by Willis Davis, 20, of 123½ E. Mound St. He was not hurt.

The car was operated by Miles W. Reeves, 24, of 1107 S. Washington St. He was not injured.

POLICE said the ambulance was headed north on Court St. According to Reeves, the collision came when he attempted to pull over after hearing the emergency vehicle's siren.

Officers said the car struck the left side of the ambulance which also had its red flasher light on. Both vehicles were extensively damaged, they said.

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—A group of 40 school patrol boys toured Dayton's safety building and stopped in to hear a few words from Police Chief Paul Price.

Price, who has served with the police division more than 25 years, told the boys how they could become policemen.

"You have to be 21 years old to join the force, but can't be over 31," he said.

One puzzled grade schooler raised his hand and asked: "You look like you're older than 31—how come you're still here?"

Both vehicles were extensively damaged, they said.

Officers said the car struck the left side of the ambulance which also had its red flasher light on. Both vehicles were extensively damaged, they said.

A. W. Marion Dies in Home

Former State Ag
Chief Native of City

A. W. Marion, 58, of Canal Winchester, a Circleville native and former state director of agriculture, died Saturday night in his home following a heart attack.

Mr. Marion was a graduate of Circleville High School and Ohio State University's College of Agriculture. He had been watching basketball game shortly before his death.

In his graduate work at the University of Wisconsin, he specialized in animal breeding and forage crops. The former owner and operator of a farm in Mercer County, he helped organize the Mercer County Seed Improvement Assn. and aided in establishment of the Soil Conservation District in that area.

In 1949, Mr. Marion became the first director of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources. He was a board of trustees member for the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station, a member of the Farm and Home Administration Board and former chairman of the Ohio St. Lawrence Seaway Committee.

THE Circleville native was a member of Producers Livestock Assn., Ohio Wool Growers Cooperative Assn., and the local, state and American Farm Bureau. He belonged to the local, state and national Grange and the Celina post of the American Legion.

He was a past chancellor commander of Circleville's Philos Lodge No. 64, Knights of Pythias, and was a 32nd degree Mason.

He was a member of the Masonic Lodge, F&AM of Circleville and Lions International, Pickerington. He was on the advisory committee of National Rivers and Harbors.

Surviving are his wife, Ruth Macklin Marion; one daughter, Mrs. Jane Marion Miller, Marysville, Calif., and his mother, Mrs. Lula Marion, Canal Winchester. A sister of the wife, Mrs. Iva Stump, lives in the Tilton area.

Memorial services will be 2 p.m. Thursday in the Groveport Presbyterian Church. Memorial donations to the Heart Fund would be appreciated by members of the family.

Arrangements will be directed by the Darfus Funeral Home, Groveport.

Methodist Men Well Prepped For Washington Supper Fete

The members of the Methodist Men's Club are getting their aprons ready for their annual excursion into the kitchen Wednesday night when they will prepare, cook and serve the traditional Washington's Birthday Supper at the Church.

For as long as many natives can remember the men have been juggling the hot baked potatoes, cooking the baked ham and slicing the home made cherry pies that are the staples of this meal. Also on the menu are green beans, tossed salad, hot rolls and coffee or milk.

General co-chairmen Robert Liston and John Evans said today their crews were ready to put on

FCC Chief Urges Photos In Courtroom

CHICAGO (AP)—The American Bar Association has been urged to relax its ban and allow individual judges to determine whether photographers and broadcasters may cover courtrooms during a trial.

The chairman of the Federal Communications Commission and representatives of radio, television and press joined Sunday in urging revision of Canon 35, a 25-year-old rule of judicial ethics.

They told a special ABA committee that still and TV cameras and radio microphones should be allowed in courtrooms if the presiding judge permits.

Newton Minow, FCC chairman, said in a letter to the committee: "It should be for the trial judge to decide whether and under what circumstances and safeguards proceedings in his court might appropriately be reported by radio or television."

Radio and television have demonstrated time and again that they are well-qualified to provide public service programming in a manner fully consistent with the public interest, he wrote.

John R. Colburn of the Richmond (Va.) Times-Dispatch, endorsed a system used in Colorado and Texas in recent years in which judges have permitted courtroom photography and broadcasting.

Stock Market Picture Mixed

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market presented a mixed picture early this afternoon after backing away from an initial advance. Trading was moderate.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .30 at 262.20 with industrials up .10, rails up .30 and utilities up .10.

Fractional gains and losses were the general rule among key stocks but there were a few wider moves.

Some of the major oils were nicely ahead but the pattern among steels, motors, chemicals, airlines, rails and electrical equipments was uneven. Aircrafts and tobacco edged off.

International Telephone was off about 3 points.

General Time was in demand again, rising 1 1/4.

New Countdown

noon. NASA said the rocket and the capsule were "technically ready for the countdown and launch."

Much has been said and written over the past weeks about the tension Glenn must be experiencing, but the astronaut told reporters: "I'm not a bit nervous, I'm relaxed as can be."

Meanwhile, scientists at Lewis Research Center in Cleveland have the delicate job of developing a rocket that will enable Project Apollo astronauts to land safely on the moon.

This spent rocket will serve as the launch pad for the spacecraft's trip to the moon and back to earth.

Contracts for the new development may reach $500 million in the next few years, Dr. Abe Silvestein, director of the center, said Sunday. Lewis Center is under the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

The Lewis research and development project is one of three sections for the spacecraft that will be used in Project Apollo—the United States' attempt to land a three-man team on the moon by 1970. Other work is being done in Huntsville, Ala., and Houston, Texas.

Silverstein said Lewis will administer all of the industrial contracts for producing the rocket known as a "lunar landing module." A test stand for such an engine is being designed for the Plum Brook test site near Sandusky.

Kennedy Asks Standby Power To End Any Business Slump

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today sent to Congress legislation to give him power to trigger up to $2 billion of public works projects in the early stage of any business slump.

In an accompanying letter Kennedy said the standby authority would be "an invaluable anti-recession tool."

It would permit a speedup of authorized federal projects and provide grant and loan funds for the states to activate their own high-priority improvements, Kennedy said, without the necessity of waiting for congressional action which "may be too late."

2 Republican Candidates Off State Ballot

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Secretary of State Ted W. Brown said today two Republican candidates—one for state treasurer and one for U.S. Senator—have been disqualified for the May primary election because of inadequate petitions.

Brown said John Hayes Ferguson of Cambridge had enough valid signatures, but they represented only 29 counties, one short of the required number.

Richard Martin of Euclid was disqualified as a candidate for U.S. Senator for lack of at least 1,000 valid signatures. He filed 1,683 names, but 606 were held invalid by election boards.

Ferguson filed signatures from 31 counties, but petitions from Jackson and Wayne counties were declared invalid. He had a total of 1,024 valid signatures on remaining petitions.

The disqualifications left three Republican candidates for U.S. Senator and five GOP aspirants for state treasurer.

A total of 68 candidates in both parties remain in the primary election races for statewide offices.

For as long as many natives can remember the men have been juggling the hot baked potatoes, cooking the baked ham and slicing the home made cherry pies that are the staples of this meal. Also on the menu are green beans, tossed salad, hot rolls and coffee or milk.

FCC Chief Urges Photos In Courtroom

CHICAGO (AP)—The American Bar Association has been urged to relax its ban and allow individual judges to determine whether photographers and broadcasters may cover courtrooms during a trial.

The chairman of the Federal Communications Commission and representatives of radio, television and press joined Sunday in urging revision of Canon 35, a 25-year-old rule of judicial ethics.

They told a special ABA committee that still and TV cameras and radio microphones should be allowed in courtrooms if the presiding judge permits.

Newton Minow, FCC chairman, said in a letter to the committee: "It should be for the trial judge to decide whether and under what circumstances and safeguards proceedings in his court might appropriately be reported by radio or television."

Radio and television have demonstrated time and again that they are well-qualified to provide public service programming in a manner fully consistent with the public interest, he wrote.

John H. Cothran of the Richmond (Va.) Times-Dispatch, endorsed a system used in Colorado and Texas in recent years in which judges have permitted courtroom photography and broadcasting.

Stock Market Picture Mixed

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market presented a mixed picture early this afternoon after backing away from an initial advance. Trading was moderate.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .30 at 262.20 with industrials up .10, rails up .30 and utilities up .10.

Fractional gains and losses were the general rule among key stocks but there were a few wider moves.

Some of the major oils were nicely ahead but the pattern among steels, motors, chemicals, airlines, rails and electrical equipments was uneven. Aircrafts and tobacco edged off.

International Telephone was off about 3 points.

General Time was in demand again, rising 1/4.

New Countdown

noon. NASA said the rocket and the capsule were "technically ready for the countdown and launch."

Much has been said and written over the past weeks about the tension Glenn must be experiencing, but the astronaut told reporters: "I'm not a bit nervous, I'm relaxed as can be."

Meanwhile, scientists at Lewis Research Center in Cleveland have the delicate job of developing a rocket that will enable Project Apollo astronauts to land safely on the moon.

This spent rocket will serve as the launch pad for the spacecraft's trip to the moon and back to earth.

Contracts for the new development may reach $500 million in the next few years, Dr. Abe Silverstein, director of the center, said Sunday. Lewis Center is under the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

The Lewis research and development project is one of three sections for the spacecraft that will be used in Project Apollo—the United States' attempt to land a three-man team on the moon by 1970. Other work is being done in Huntsville, Ala., and Houston, Tex.

Silverstein said Lewis will administer all of the industrial contracts for producing the rocket known as a "lunar landing module." A test stand for such an engine is being designed for the Plum Brook test site near Sandusky.

Kennedy Asks Standby Power To End Any Business Slump

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy today sent to Congress legislation to give him power to trigger up to $2 billion of public works projects in the early stage of any business slump.

In an accompanying letter Kennedy said the standby authority would be "an invaluable anti-recession tool."

It would permit a speedup of authorized federal projects and provide grant and loan funds for the states to activate their own high-priority improvements, Kennedy said, without the necessity of waiting for congressional action which "may be too late."

2 Republican Candidates Off State Ballot

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Secretary of State Ted W. Brown said today two Republican candidates—one for state treasurer and one for U.S. Senator—have been disqualified for the May primary election because of inadequate petitions.

Brown said John Hayes Ferguson of Cambridge had enough valid signatures, but they represented only 29 counties, one short of the required number.

Richard Martin of Euclid was disqualified as a candidate for U.S. Senator for lack of at least 1,000 valid signatures. He filed 1,683 names, but 696 were held invalid by election boards.

Ferguson filed signatures from 31 counties, but petitions from Jackson and Wayne counties were declared invalid. He had a total of 1,024 valid signatures on remaining petitions.

The disqualifications left three Republican candidates for U.S. Senator and five GOP aspirants for state treasurer.

A total of 68 candidates in both parties remain in the primary election races for statewide offices.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

This Modern World!

DEAR ABBY: I read in the newspaper that all the "Tarzan" books were banned from children's libraries because Tarzan and Jane were living in sin! What child would ever think of that? That is just another example of what some dirty-minded adults can stir up. I would like your opinion on this.

ADULT AND DISGUSTED
DEAR ABBY: As I recall the Tarzan stories, he and Jane just "went together." If they did any high living, it was all in a tree, and unrecorded.

DEAR ABBY: I have been married a year and have not as yet invited my in-laws to my home for dinner, although I have had many other dinner guests. I have nice dishes and people tell me I am a good cook, but here is my story: My mother-in-law has made fun of, criticized and held her nose in describing dinners she has had in the homes of mutual relatives and good friends. She talks about how terrible the meal was, when I know how hard some of her hostesses have worked to make it nice. Am I wrong? If I am, I will invite her.

NO NAME PLEASE
DEAR NO NAME: You don't have to invite her for MY sake, but perhaps you should for your husband's. Do your best and prove her wrong.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is a man I have gone with for two years. I am 19 and he is 22. I moved 80 miles from where he lives. He makes very good money and drives a new car, yet he claims he can't afford to drive down to see me on week-ends. He says if I go with anyone else, he'll break my neck. But I hear that he runs around with a different girl every night. Do you think I'm wasting my time sitting home?

NO WEEKEND
DEAR NO: Yes, and if you sit at home while he chases around, YOUR "week-end" is your head!

CONFIDENTIAL TO HELEN AND THE GIRLS: Pizza is a pie. It should properly be eaten with a fork in public.

How is the world treating you? Unload your problems on Abby, care of this paper.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather outlook:

Once again Ohio had topsyturvy weather with the temperatures rising during the night and scheduled for a fall-during the daytime.

Early this morning, a cold front started moving over the western counties, dropping temperatures at Cincinnati from 51 degrees at midnight to 36 at daybreak. At the same time, temperatures moved up into the middle and high 40s over the eastern counties, but these are scheduled to drop into the 30s later this morning.

There was light rain and drizzle in the areas of mild temperature this morning, but later today and tonight snow flurries are indicated for the northern counties and some sections of Central Ohio.

The change in the weather over the state is associated with a low pressure area which produced widespread snow from Iowa, Wisconsin and Michigan.

Around the state this morning, Cincinnati had 36, Zanesville 45, Cleveland 44, Columbus 40 and Toledo 34.

OHIO FIVE DAY FORECASTS

SOUTHERN AND CENTRAL OHIO — Temperatures will average three to five degrees below normal. Normal high 40-46, normal low 24-28. Cold beginning of period, warmer during mid-week, colder about Saturday. Precipitation will be rain or snow about Wednesday night and again by end of week.

Air Force's Model Airplanes Disappear

CINCINNATI (AP)—What became of the five model Air Force planes that disappeared into the wild blue yonder after the annual Cincinnati Military Ball Saturday night.

Air Force Capt. Robert Ferguson said the five models, worth about $200, had been loaned by the Cincinnati Air Force recruiting office. They were found missing from a box about 1 a.m. Police said one was recovered Sunday and they want to question a waiter about the others.

Corporate Gifts Climb To New Record Level

NEW YORK (AP) — Corporate gifts have risen to a new annual level of about $178 million, an increase of more than 30 per cent in two years, says the Council for Financial Aid to Education.

Business and industry not only are giving more money to education, the council reported Thursday, but they also are giving education a bigger share of their total contributions.

Periwinkles Used in Leukemia Fight

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Tons of plants are being used in an effort to help Mary Mote 5, a leukemia victim.

There is no known cure for her acute form of leukemia but a co-operative scientific effort that trails from Jamaica to Indianapolis.

Births Outnumber Deaths in January

The City and County Health Departments reported today that 37 births and 29 deaths occurred within Pickaway County during January.

Hattie Wallace, city registrar, reported that boys outnumbered the girls 22-14. Eighteen of the total deaths were recorded within the city.

Mrs. Lorene Miller, county registrar, said that 11 deaths occurred in the area during the month and only one birth was recorded.

Bank Teller Is Winner Of Opera Auditions

CLEVELAND (AP) — A Rochester, N.Y., bank teller who says she didn't think she had much of a chance won first prize Sunday in the Great Lakes regional auditions sponsored by the National Council of the Metropolitan Opera Company. In addition to the $300 first prize, Miss Sylvia Friederich, 23, gets a free trip to New York to sing in the Met's national auditions March 19 and 20.

Helen Farras Joseph, 19, of Chester, Pa., a senior at Oberlin College Conservatory, won the $200 second prize, and Edward A. Bair, 28, of Ann Arbor, Mich., the $100 third prize.

lis to Dallas, is working in her behalf.

A drug used on Mary is made from the periwinkle, one of the first plants used by Jamaican natives in their folk cures.

Scientists are testing various drugs made from the plant and some have shown promise against leukemia and other forms of cancer. Mary is getting the latest drug, called "leurocristine." It is not generally available.

A physician at Children's Medical Center said it takes two tons of periwinkle for the manufacturer (Eli Lilly and Co.) in Indianapolis to make a gram of leurocristine. One gram costs $1,800. Mary will use that much in six weeks. The manufacturer supplies it without charge to the medical center for testing purposes.

The Southwest Cancer Chemotherapy Group, which includes many scientists testing potential cancer drugs, is cooperating with the manufacturer in the clinical trials.

So, curly haired Mary troops to the center every week for an intravenous injection.

She usually is smiling, and clutches a black-and-white stuffed dog in both hands as she waits. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank O. Mote. He is a Dallas detective.

Dr. Joe Anne Whitaker, director of the hematology clinic at the center, said that while the drug has showed some promises, it is not considered a cure.

The manufacturer declined to comment until a meeting in April, when results from the various centers testing leurocristine will be studied.

2 Boys Arrested, Fire BBs on Ohio Turnpike

CLEVELAND (AP) — Two 14-year-old boys who fired air rifles at moving-car targets on the Ohio Turnpike Sunday were arrested.

Alex Kolka, police chief of suburban Broadview Heights, said they punctured the windshield of a car and a vent window of a semi-trailer truck driver. No one was injured.

President Eisenhower started the smooth and rather soft approach. President Kennedy followed it. This avoidance of head-on clashes and nagging brawls may explain their high standing in public opinion polls.

They might have gotten more from Congress by being tougher. That's a guess. President Truman was tougher but he had troubles. Where he used a constant harpoon, Kennedy employs only a needle, and then infrequently.

The Truman-Eisenhower-Kennedy troubles with Congress have had a single origin and no change is in sight.

All that those who call themselves Democrats have in common, and the same goes for Republicans, is a rubbery party label. Both are split into liberals, middle-roads and the very conservative.

The result is a political mish-mash and a kind of general befuddlement for voters who don't keep records.

If they did, the record would show: The liberals of both parties have more in common than they have with their own conservatives while the latter enjoy a far more instant affinity than they do for the liberals or middle-roads in either party.

In the House the Democrats, overwhelmingly outnumbering the Republicans, could put through any Kennedy program if they voted as a party. But only Sunday House speaker John McCormack acknowledged: Right now Kennedy doesn't have enough votes in the House to avoid rejection of his plan for creating a new department of urban affairs and housing.

He predicted approval for the President's free trade program, federal aid for universities and colleges, and not much chance for Kennedy's program of aid to public schools.

The Republicans, in this congressional election year when their best hope for picking up a few seats is some indication that they know what they stand for, are split among themselves six way from Sunday.

The difference in their views is just the current example of the American political hash in which party labels mean something only sometimes.

For instance, Arizona's Republican Sen. Barry Goldwater, who is making a career of being a conservative, has more in common with some conservative Southern Democrats than with another leader of his party who has shown more liberal views, New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

It was on Rockefeller that Kennedy recently used one of his infrequent needles when he jibed that he wasn't sure any more that the governor wasn't moving to the right of Goldwater.

Bank Teller Is Winner Of Opera Auditions

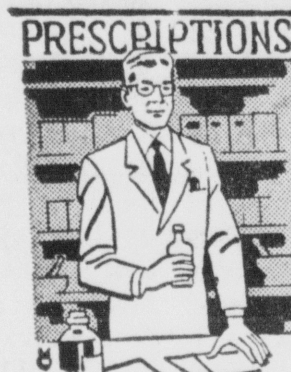

CLEVELAND (AP) — A Rochester, N.Y., bank teller who says she didn't think she had much of a chance won first prize Sunday in the Great Lakes regional auditions sponsored by the National Council of the Metropolitan Opera Company. In addition to the $300 first prize, Miss Sylvia Friederich, 23, gets a free trip to New York to sing in the Met's national auditions March 19 and 22.

Helen Farras Joseph, 19, of Chester, Pa., a senior at Oberlin College Conservatory, won the $200 second prize, and Edward A. Bair, 28, of Ann Arbor, Mich., the $100 third prize.

Tombs in Advance

Interviewed on fallout shelters, Marshal R. Y. Malinovsky, the Soviet Union's forbidding-faced minister of defense, scoffed at them as "nothing but tombs prepared in advance."

Using communist dialectic, he charged that the shelter drive in the United States and other "capitalist imperialist" countries was nothing but a scheme designed to enrich the already fat monopolies.

Then Malinovsky got to his real point—another scare story intended to influence the foreign policy of the United States and its allies. He said he knew of no shelter that would protect anybody against the force of bombs of many millions of tons of TNT. If they survived such blasts, the radioactive contamination of air, water, food and everything would make their survival brief. There was more about wiping entire nations off the face of the earth with one blast, etc.

The scare story about the capacity of the Soviet Union to destroy any nation that gets in its way is old stuff. Khrushchev has used it many times.

Malinovsky's scoffing at shelters is a more recent communist tactic. It is aimed at discouraging victim nations from strengthening themselves against surprise red attack.

Mild Revolution

Some sort of mild revolution could occur in the music industry if recommendations of the U. S. Copyright Office are enacted into law. As a result of a five-year study of the regulations and traditions of American copyrights, the office has recommended some major changes.

Among them would be the extension of copyright terms from 56 to 76 years, elimination of the provision that copyrighted material must be available to others for a fee, inclusion of jukebox recordings and other population music mediums in royalty requirements (they are now excluded) and inclusion of original dance routines under copyright provisions.

Some of the more noticeable results of the adoption of these recommendations would be the imposition of a heavy royalty bill on the $500 million-a-year jukebox industry and curtailment of widespread imitating of popular dances. Just how this would affect the vast audiences of these forms of entertainment is not certain, but some result could be a jukebox surcharge an increase in the cost of a beer or the return of silence.

When these proposals reach the point of congressional consideration, one may expect some extraordinary oratorical discord—royalty free—to be heard. If enacted, these recommendations will not affect the world's destiny, but they will reach deeply into the lives of every citizen.

It should not be surprising if workers in the copyright office adopt "There Will be a Hot Time in the Old Town Tonight" as the bureau's official song until they emerge, one way or another, from the hassle they have started.

Inside You and Yours

By BURTON H. FERN, M.D.

What is spastic colon? What can help it?

Spastic colon refers to choppy, irritable spasms in the large intestine (colon), replacing those smooth waves that normally whip everything along. Nervous tension can trigger this spasm.

So can a hurried schedule that leaves no time to heed nature's call. Irritating laxatives and enemas can make any colon spastic. Sometimes food allergy brings on irritable colon.

Intestinal flow slows and water cozes back into the system. Air bubbles are trapped between hard, dried-up intestinal contents and mucus pours out angrily.

Painful bloating dams back into the large intestine in front of the stomach. Cramps keep you rushing to the bathroom for mucus-filled false alarms. Occasionally, intestinal rivers seep around the dam and gush through unexpectedly.

After special tests and X-rays rule out cancer and other serious ailments, you're ready for treatment.

You have to learn to rest and relax. You may even need a vacation or several days in bed. Your regular schedule has to slow down, too.

Avoid any foods which seem to aggravate the trouble, especially raw fruits and vegetables with irritating fiber. Cooking helps soften this fiber.

Nothing against Another

By George Sokolsky

It is possible to be so logical that minus negative plus and one thing comes to mean nothing against another.

Mathematicians and philosophers are capable of that kind of pilpulism. They can deal with a theory until they have slaughtered the practical and nothing remains for them but words which bump into each other and flash for a second and are gone in the stillness.

A friend of mine who has undoubtedly found life disappointing wonders how I can find anything to praise in a world held together by spit and molasses. What he does not understand is that I am enthusiastic that it holds together at all, man having a way of tearing everything apart as children tear paper dolls. We could, of course, make a worse mess than we have of the world we live in but the human mind and spirit emerges and finds justification for virtue and for life.

My friend writes me: "Holding a thing together despite an absurdity does not always represent significant statesmanship. In this case it means holding together an organization which has become a peace-disturbing organization under the control of the Asian-African-Soviet bloc, which preaches and practices the holy mission of conducting wars of liberation and uses the UN as a forum for subversive propaganda against other nations. It is true that the UN has certain success of mediation to its credit, but the same things could have been accomplished by other devices without fostering a machine for world government which is in the hands of our enemies."

My friend finds in the UN the imperfections of an organization which lives by a majority vote, namely that the majority will often consist of the least intelligent and will express itself in unsatisfactory terminology. That happens all the time in the United States when we are suddenly faced by some politician whose manners are undignified. We shrug our shoulders and hope for the best and it often does work out surprisingly well.

After all, none of the great statesmen of the world were trained for their jobs—not Caesar or Napoleon, although Alexander was brought to light by none other than Aristotle who wrote so wisely on how men should govern themselves.

We have done remarkably well by a hit and miss method, even in this country where George Washington was advised by Alexander Hamilton and Thomas Jefferson, extraordinary amateurs who risked success against the tide of the violence of their own opinions.

What can be said of the United Nations is that it has existed less than twenty years and has not yet fallen apart; that its members do not all pay their dues and fees; that the white nations have failed to prove their supremacy for other reasons than the existence of the United Nations; that during a period of universal revolution and continuous war we have not discovered an alternative for war other than the United Nations.

Is this perfection of course not! It is a strident effort by man to find a technique for living together without constant war. It would be so much easier to hold the world together in great empires, to suppress every expression of independence and to have a council of five or ten to decide all questions with unerring wisdom.

Unfortunately we sent too many black and yellow boys to school and they have read the same books that the white boys read and they wonder if certain rules of life hold for the whites, why do they not hold for them. And they go in for biology and anthropology and all the learned disciplines and they wonder what is the essential difference between one group and another. And suddenly they discover the meaning of physical power.

At that point we must either recognize the Biblical brotherhood of man or the biological kinship of species or we are licked by the majority vote in the United Nations. My friend does not like that. Too long, he has lived as a superior man, glorying in his production of the Greek poets, of Shakespeare, Goethe, Beethoven and Tchaikovsky and he asks the blacks and the yellows what they have contributed to civilization.

I fear that if my friend does not choose murder as his device he must try something like the United Nations because we have gone too far.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The right front seat in an automobile is the most dangerous in an accident, according to the Ohio Highway Patrol.

In data obtained for an automotive crash injury study, the patrol says a person sitting in the right front seat has less chance of escaping injury than anyone else in the vehicle.

The report agrees with the contention of the U.S. Public Health Service that universal use of seat belts could prevent more than 5,500 traffic deaths a year. Ohio law requires seat belt anchors in all new cars sold in the state.

The Business World

NEW YORK (AP) — Weather rather than tired blood may have put the chill on the economy reported in the first seven weeks of 1962.

With the first half of the first quarter of the year behind us, the performance so far of some key sectors of industry admittedly hasn't been as inspiring as many had hoped. January figures on industrial production, retail sales, personal income, housing starts, shipments by durable good makers, employment and work weeks slipped below the December levels.

But most of the experts are warning against jumping to conclusions from the slight dips in the statistics.

They could give way to a renewal of the upward push that made 1962 prospects look so bright—while we were still back in 1961. And the majority of the guesses is that they will.

Blaming the weather for a less glowing result than expected is an old American custom. But this time the weather has been so bad, and in many important places—the industrial sectors of the Northeast, Midwest and Pacific Coast—that it's hard even for the pessimists to read any conclusive proof of an economic setback into the official statistics.

The industrial production index of the Federal Reserve Board slipped one point in January from the record level of December. But this put it back where it was in November, and that had been a record then. In other words, even with the weather keeping some employees at home and preventing supplies from reaching some factories or goods from being shipped out, industrial production wasn't bad at all.

In fact, iron and steel output increased and the fuel and power business was strong. More important for the future perhaps, the Commerce Department reports new orders received by manufacturers of durable goods increased in January.

Weather may have taken a more than usual winter toll of outside jobs, and strikes in some auto and truck plants didn't help. But the total drop in employment was slight under the circumstances.

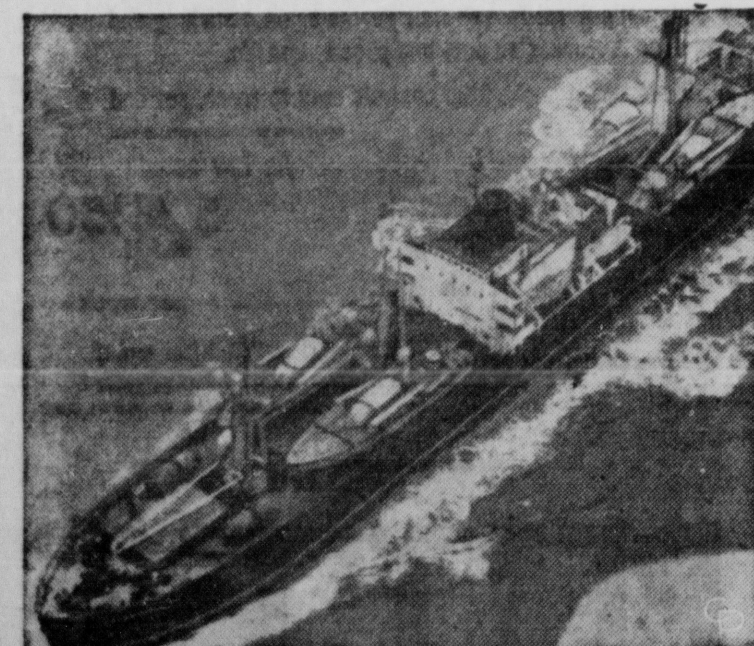

Retail sales dropped below their high point of November and December. But merchants are paying more attention just now to the prospects of a spring pickup—and to the possible effects on trade of a late Easter, April 22 this year. This presumably would hold down buying in March and increase it above average in April.

Economists are paying closest attention to two of January's statistics, personal income and the length of the work week, and to indication yet to be published of how much business will spend on new plant and equipment.

Both the work week and total personal income dipped in January—how much because of the weather, how much due to labor trouble, economists would like to know before predicting industrial trends.

And also they'd like to know just how real is that feeling of good will reported from Pittsburgh as labor and management hammer out a new steel contract.

A Grim, Unwanted Distinction

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Three U.S. presidents have been killed in office, and only one man is known to have been at the scene of all three assassinations.

This grim and unwanted distinction belonged to Robert Todd Lincoln, Abraham Lincoln's oldest son. He was present when his father was mortally wounded in 1865, and by a strange double quirk of fate also arrived on the scene shortly after James Garfield was shot in 1881 and William McKinley in 1901.

Here's another irony: A headquarters building for training rookie firemen now stands at the site where Mrs. O'Leary's cow kicked over a lantern, reportedly starting Chicago's most disastrous fire in 1871.

Remember the Good Samaritan of Biblical fame? He hasn't done so well in terms of posterity. Only 345 Samaritans now live in the Holy Land.

What is the world's largest church? St. Peter's basilica in Rome. It is 460 feet wide, 632 feet long, covers an area of nearly six acres.

Our quotable notables: "The more things a man is ashamed of the more respectable he is."—George Bernard Shaw.

How's your sweet tooth? Americans now eat about 17 pounds of candy each year. One big chain reports 41 per cent of its annual candy sales are made in a total of 29 days before six holiday periods—Easter, Christmas, Valentine's Day, Mothers' Day, Thanksgiving and Halloween.

The ancient Chinese regarded licorice as a medicine helpful in the treatment of coughs, colds, old age—and ugliness.

Education isn't easy: It's as difficult to stay in college as it is to get in. Only three out of five college freshmen remain to win their sheepskin.

Overhead in a Hotel Edison elevator: "My daughter bought a really modern home. Everything is controlled by switches—except the children."

The U.S. Labor Department predicts that by 1970 at least one out of three jobs will be held by women.

Few realize the flu epidemic of 1918-19 was among the most disastrous in history. It afflicted half a billion people, took some 25 million lives.

Life in La Belle France: The typical French housewife spends 23 per cent of her household budget on wine. Some two million Frenchmen drink two or more bottles of wine daily. In the peak year of 1956 too much tipping brought death to 20,289 persons.

Security: The ambition of most people today seems to be to find a safe niche with a big corporation. Only one-third of the work force is hired by firms having fewer than 50 employees.

Wise crack of the week: "You're getting over the hill when you no longer learn history—but remember it."

One price of a civilization on wheels: Automobiles kill and cripple more U.S. children than any disease.

It was E. W. Howe who observed, "A bad woman raises hell with a good many men while a good woman raises hell with only one."

Inside You and Yours

By BURTON H. FERN, M.D.

What is spastic colon? What can help it?

Spastic colon refers to choppy, irritable spasms in the large intestine (colon), replacing those smooth waves that normally whip everything along. Nervous tension can trigger this spasm.

So can a hurried schedule that leaves no time to heed nature's call. Irritating laxatives and enemas can make any colon spastic. Sometimes food allergy brings on irritable colon.

Intestinal flow slows and water freezes back into the system. Air bubbles are trapped between hard, dried-up intestinal contents and mucus pours out angrily.

Painful bloating damps back into the large intestine in front of the stomach. Cramps keep you rushing to the bathroom for mucus-filled false alarms. Occasionally, intestinal rivers seep around the dam and gush through unexpectedly.

After special tests and X-rays rule out cancer and other serious ailments, you're ready for treatment.

You have to learn to rest and relax. You may even need a vacation or several days in bed. Your regular schedule has to slow down, too.

Avoid any foods which seem to aggravate the trouble, especially raw fruits and vegetables with irritating fiber. Cooking helps soften this fiber.

Watch out for other common offenders—tobacco, alcohol, coffee, juices and sweets. Enjoy custards and creamy foods. They slow down intestinal frenzy.

Special detergent and anti-bloating pills can help you break the laxative habit. So can exercise—nature's normal laxative!

You may have to be toilet-trained all over again. Try—without straining—for 10 minutes about a half hour after breakfast. That's when the full stomach speeds colon-emptying.

At first, your doctor may prescribe a special laxative or enema if you're stopped up more than three days. But gradually that spastic colon relaxes and you can once again enjoy natural regularity, which may mean only once every 3 or 4 days.

Dr. Fern's mailbox is wide open for letters from readers. While he cannot undertake to answer individual letters, he will use readers' questions in his column whenever possible and when they are of general interest. Address your letters to Dr. Fern in care of this newspaper.

Plate Glass Firm Labor Contract OK'd

CINCINNATI (AP) — Negotiators went more than a day past deadline before agreeing on a new contract for the glass division of Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co.

Agreement came just before midnight Saturday after day-long joint bargaining sessions with the United Glass Workers Union.

Chief features of the contract are a 12-cent hourly pay raise, split over the two years of contract life, and formation of a study group on compensation for employees.

Both sides were tight-lipped on progress throughout the talks which began here Feb. 5. Spokesmen for company and union limited comments after the settlement to a joint announcement.

The new contract also liberalized insurance and vacation provisions, plus setting up a retirement plan for employees who want to retire early at age 62. If they have 15 years continuous service, they can take an early pension of $5 monthly for every year of service.

The wage hike will up base minimum pay to $2.33 hourly in the second year of the contract. The increase does not affect rates used to figure bonuses, incentive pay or piece work rates.

An estimated 12,000 employees were covered by the contract, involving plants at Mount Vernon, Ohio, Henryetta, Okla.; Clarksburg, W. Va.; Crystal City, Mo.; Cumberland, Md., and at Ford City and Creighton, Pa.

Mother Questioned In Stabbing of Mate

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Police were questioning a Columbus mother of three in the fatal stabbing Sunday of her estranged husband.

Police said the victim, Robert Cardwell, 37, was stabbed three times only minutes after bringing two of his children back to their mother, Peggy Cardwell, 26. Neighbors said Cardwell had had the children with him for the day.

Nation May Escape Crippling Steel Strike

NEW YORK (AP) — An early bird start on steel industry labor negotiations has hatched widespread optimism that the nation may escape the crippling effects of a strike.

The 11 major steel corporations and the United Steelworkers Union started discussions farther in advance of the contract expiration date than ever before.

They have 20 weeks before the contract runs out June 30.

The early get-together was in response to urging by President Kennedy, who asserted the economic recovery could not survive a work stoppage such as the 116-day walkout of 1959.

Secretary of Commerce Luther H. Hodges predicted a quick settlement, saying it is "the general understanding that the steel contract will be sealed long before the period expires."

And he added that he doubted there would be much of a wage increase, if any.

The top bargainers were more cautious. R. Conrad Cooper, executive vice president of U.S. Steel Corp., said, "I hope he—Hodges—is right." David J. McDonald, president of the union, said "I hope we'll be able to do it."

Business Briefs

David Dresbach of Ashville is one of 35 agents attending the Training Program conducted this week by the Nationwide Insurance Companies at the Green Meadows Inn, Worthington.

Dresbach was selected to attend this program which is designed to broaden his scope of service to policyholders and to the general public.

The program was one of a series of training courses held periodically by these Companies.

The birthplace of Gilbert Stuart, near Wickford, R. I., is open year round. Stuart was the foremost painter of portraits of George Washington. What is believed to be the only demonstrating water-powered snuff mill in the country may be seen on the lower floor of the old house.

The contract will determine the pay and benefits of 430,000 steelworkers. And it will vitally influence more than 500,000 workers in metal fabricating, aluminum making and other fields.

The union's major target is greater job security for its members. The producers are anxious to improve productivity through automation and modernization.

As the negotiations got under way the industry was operating at a high rate. The mills produced 2,446,000 tons of raw steel during the week. This was at an 80 per cent of capacity.

The Commerce Department reported that the factory work week declined by about 45 minutes during January because of a sharp cutback in overtime in the automobile industry and moderate drops in several other industries. The work week averaged 39.8 hours, about an hour higher than in January 1961. Weekly earnings of factory production workers fell $1.67 to 94.96 but were $5.88 above the year-ago level.

President Kennedy said that attaining full employment when machines are replacing men is "the major domestic challenge of the Sixties."

Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg said the problem in the next 12 months is to create 4.5 million new jobs without raising prices and to reduce the unemployment rate from 5.8 per cent to 4 per cent.

Americans' personal income declined in January to an annual rate of $430.3 billion, down 1.5 billion from the record December level. Secretary Hodges said it was more significant that the January rate was 6.5 per cent higher than a year earlier.

Automobile production moved ahead following settlement of a strike against Studebaker-Packard and the reopening of some Chrysler assembly plants. Output was estimated at 136,000 passenger cars, compared with 128,456 the previous week and 76,649 a year ago. The industry expected to produce the one-millionth passenger car of this year next week. Sales continued brisk. Chevrolet, Pontiac and Oldsmobile reported their sales since the first of the year were 40 per cent or better above the level of a year ago.

Presbyterian Women, Group C Meet Thursday

Mrs. Robert Adkins, 171 Montclair Ave., was hostess for a meeting Thursday of Group C of the Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church.

A dessert course preceded the meeting with Mrs. Ed Grigg presiding at the tea table which was centered with lovely spring flowers.

Mrs. Grigg conducted the business meeting which immediately followed the luncheon. Mrs. B. T. Hedges read the minutes which included the 1962 slate of officers:

Mrs. Grigg and Mrs. Robert Adkins, co-chairmen; Mrs. B. T. Hedges, secretary; Miss Elizabeth Stevenson, treasurer; Mrs. Theodore L. Huston, program chairman; Mrs. Howard A. Orr, fellowship chairman; Mrs. Walter Downing, world service chairman.

The presiding chairman, Mrs. Grigg, announced that the World Day of Prayer would be observed at the Presbyterian Church on March 9.

Printed programs for meetings through June were distributed by Mrs. Huston.

Mrs. Robert McKelvey read an article from Reader's Digest entitled, "What Not To Tell a Child about God."

Mrs. J. Beryl Stevenson conducted the study guide on "St. Paul's Letter to the Romans" by Burton H. Throckmorton Jr. She then presented an interpretation of a chapter on "God's Righteousness."

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. William Sprague, 815 Dartmouth Drive.

Culinary Charmers

On February days when appetites are keen, hearty foods are in order. Take a tip from Midwest-style cookery for dishes certain to appeal to the men of the house.

This one is a savory, full-flavored beef dish with a hidden corn stuffing. Round steak is cut into serving pieces, pounded with seasoned flour, and rolled with the corn mixture inside to form "birds."

Round steak should always be cooked by moist heat. This gives an opportunity to make a wonderful gravy to pour over the top.

Corn Stuffed Beef Birds
1 beef round steak, cut 1/2 inch thick
1/4 cup flour
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 can (10 1/2 ounces) whole kernel corn
3/4 cup cracker crumbs
2 tablespoons chopped onion
1 tablespoon chopped green pepper
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
1/4 teaspoon basil
2 tablespoons lard or drippings
1/4 cup water

Combine flour, salt and pepper. Pound seasoned flour into steak. Cut steak into 5 or 6 servings. Mix together corn, cracker crumbs, onion, green pepper and seasonings. Place 1-3 cup corn mixture on each piece of steak and roll as a jelly roll. Fasten with wooden picks or skewers. Brown meat slowly in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Add water. Cover tightly and cook slowly 1 1/2 hours or until meat is tender. Thicken cooking liquid for gravy, if desired. 5 to 6 servings.

45 Attend Majors Temple Meet Thursday

A meeting of Majors Temple No. 516 on Thursday evening featured "Friendship Night" with 45 persons in attendance, including 12 guests from Rose Forrester Temple No. 176 of Lancaster.

Geneva Woodward, most excellent chief, was in charge of the business meeting. A contribution was approved for the local Heart Fund.

Following the business session, a covered dish dinner was held in the dining room. Games were played and a gift was presented to everyone present.

The following committees made the arrangements for the "Friendship Night":

Reception — Nanie Davis, Minnie Newton, Frances Evans; Entertainment — Clarissa Talbot Virginia Strawser and Margie Carmean; Lunch — Mae Groce, Helen Wilkins, Josephine Higgins, Olive Hettinger.

The next regular meeting will be held March 1.

Party Given For SS Class

A Valentine's Day Party was given for the Junior Girls Sunday School Class of the Church of Christ in Christian Union Church, Tuesday evening in the home of the class instructor, Mrs. Clarence H. England.

The evening was spent playing games and was highlighted with a Valentine exchange. Refreshments were served by Mrs. England and Mrs. McClelland Clark.

Those attending were: Mary Jo Robison, Kathy Frazier, Dorothy Rhoades, Pamela Hatfield, Jennie Leasure Beverly Herron Linda Spiller, Judy Perkins, Sharon Whaley, Barbara Ogan, Nancy Steele, Bonnie Cottrill, Carolyn Burke, Ruth Bensonhaver, Nancy Schwalbaugh, Lola Arledge, Zola Arledge, Rita Barrett Joyce Ferguson, Judy Payne and Margaret Dorsey.

Guild 28 Meets In Duncan Home

Berger Hospital Guild No. 28 met recently in the home of Mrs. Fred Duncan, 133 Pinckney St., with Mrs. Hal Dickenson presiding in the absence of Mrs. E. J. Stucker, chairman.

Members recorded an affirmative vote to hold a "white elephant" sale on March 13, in the home of Mrs. Dickenson, 209 N. Scioto St.

Following the business meeting, refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed by those present.

Three-Way Dressing Mirror Is Full-Length Grooming Aid

Two doors fairly close together, a few simple hand tools and three full-length mirrors are all the ingredients you need to make a simple yet highly effective dressing, room arrangement.

The necessary setting, is often found in a bedroom where the storage closet and entrance door are located only a few feet apart on the same wall. A mirror on each door and another on the wall between are all that are required. When the doors are partially opened you can see yourself full-length, from any angle, to check every detail of costume and make-up.

Installation is simple, requiring only a few minutes with a screw driver and a small drill. The unframed mirrors are attached with screws and mounting clamps which are available from hardware stores or glass dealers' shops.

If dressing space is at a premium, the same idea makes a perfect three-way vanity. The mirrors are again mounted on the doors, but in this case a half-length mirror is used on the wall between.

A small shelf mounted on brackets fixed to the wall under the half mirror completes the vanity and gives the lady of the house an inexpensive yet thoroughly workable make-up and dressing table. Shelves the same size as the top can be fastened on the wall eight inches or so below each other and the entire series covered with a drape to provide storage for cosmetics.

Presbyterian Women, Group C Meet Thursday

Mrs. Robert Adams, 171 Montclair Ave., was hostess for a meeting Thursday of Group C of the Women's Association of the First Presbyterian Church.

A dessert course preceded the meeting with Mrs. Ed Grigg presiding at the tea table which was centered with lovely spring flowers.

Mrs. Grigg conducted the business meeting which immediately followed the luncheon. Mrs. B. T. Hedges read the minutes which included the 1962 slate of officers: Mrs. Grigg and Mrs. Robert Adams, co-chairmen; Mrs. B. T. Hedges, secretary; Miss Elizabeth Stevenson, treasurer; Mrs. Theodore L. Huston, program chairman; Mrs. Howard A. Orr, fellowship chairman; Mrs. Walter Downing, world service chairman.

The presiding chairman, Mrs. Grigg, announced that the World Day of Prayer would be observed at the Presbyterian Church on March 9.

Printed programs for meetings through June were distributed by Mrs. Huston.

Mrs. Robert McKelvey read an article from Reader's Digest entitled, "What Not To Tell A Child about God."

Mrs. J. Beryl Stevenson conducted the study guide on "St. Paul's Letter to the Romans" by Burton H. Throckmorton Jr. She then presented an interpretation of a chapter on "God's Righteousness."

Culinary Charmers

On February days when appetites are keen, hearty foods are in order. Take a tip from Midwest-style cookery for dishes certain to appeal to the men of the house.

This one is a savory, full-flavored beef dish with a hidden corn stuffing. Round steak is cut into serving pieces, pounded with seasoned flour, and rolled with the corn mixture inside to form "birds."

Round steak should always be cooked by moist heat. This gives an opportunity to make a wonderful gravy to pour over the top.

Corn Stuffed Beef Birds

1 beef round steak, cut 1/2 inch thick

1/4 cup flour

1 1/2 teaspoons salt

1/4 teaspoon pepper

1 can (10 1/2 ounces) whole kernel corn

3/4 cup cracker crumbs

2 tablespoons chopped onion

1 tablespoon chopped green pepper

1/2 teaspoon salt

1/4 teaspoon pepper

1/4 teaspoon basil

2 tablespoons lard or drippings

1/4 cup water

Combine flour, salt and pepper

Pound seasoned flour into steak. Cut steak into 5 or 6 servings. Mix together corn, cracker crumbs, onion, green pepper and seasonings.

Place 1-3 cup corn mixture on each piece of steak and roll as a jelly roll. Fasten with wooden picks or skewers. Brown meat slowly in lard or drippings. Pour off drippings. Add water. Cover tightly and cook slowly 1 1/2 hours or until meat is tender. Thicken cooking liquid for gravy, if desired, 5 to 6 servings.

45 Attend Majors Temple Meet Thursday

A meeting of Majors Temple No. 516 on Thursday evening featured "Friendship Night" with 45 persons in attendance, including 12 guests from Rose Forrester Temple No. 176 of Lancaster.

Geneva Woodward, most excellent chief, was in charge of the business meeting. A contribution was approved for the local Heart Fund.

Following the business session, a covered dish dinner was held in the dining room. Games were played and a gift was presented to everyone present.

The following committees made the arrangements for the "Friendship Night":

Reception — Nanie Davis, Minnie Newton, Frances Evans; Entertainment — Clarissa Talbot, Virginia Strawser and Margie Carmean; Lunch — Mae Groce, Helen Wilkins, Josephine Higgins, Olive Hettiger.

The next regular meeting will be held March 1.

Party Given For SS Class

A Valentine's Day Party was given for the Junior Girls Sunday School Class of the Church of Christ in Christian Union Church, Tuesday evening in the home of the class instructor, Mrs. Clarence H. England.

The evening was spent playing games and was highlighted with a Valentine exchange. Refreshments were served by Mrs. England and Mrs. McClelland Clark.

Those attending were: Mary Jo Robison, Kathy Frazier, Dorothy Rhoades, Pamela Hatfield, Jennie Leasure, Beverly Herron, Linda Spiller, Judy Perkins, Sharon Whaley, Barbara Ogan, Nancy Steele, Bonnie Cottrill, Carolyn Burke, Ruth Bensonhaver, Nancy Schwalbaugh, Lola Arledge, Zola Arledge, Rita Barrett, Joyce Ferguson, Judy Payne and Margaret Dorsey.

Tigermen Go Down Swinging In 77-63 Hurricane Battle

A valiant try to curb a roaring Wilmington Hurricane was a prime objective for the cage Tigermen of Circleville here Saturday night. But the gusty gale from Clinton County would not be denied in blowing to a 77-63 victory.

For the first two quarters it appeared the Tigers might have

Seven Tigers Qualify for District Meet

The Circleville wrestling squad qualified seven men in the east sectional qualifying matches of the Central District Wrestling Tournament Saturday night.

The Roundtown grapplers registered six pins and one decision, in their bid for tournament honors.

Terry Kifer, after pinning his man in 2:50 Friday, came back Saturday to decision John Jordan of Groveport 7-0 in the 106-pound class.

In the 120, Jack Cook who drew a bye Friday pinned Dave Erwin of Bishop Hartly in 4:15.

TIM MOGAN registered a decision over Rudolph of Waterson Friday and pinned Pat Ferry of Waterson in 3:38 in the 127-pound class.

Tom Bivens, the only other Tiger to draw a bye Friday, pinned Mike Leppert of Worthington in 5:58 in the 133-pound class.

In the 138 pound class, Dever Jolly decided his opponent on Friday and pinned Hickman of Worthington in 3:38.

Tom Moore, wrestling in the 154-pound class, registered pins on both Friday and Saturday. In his first match he nailed McIntosh of Waterson in 1:45 and then returned Saturday to pin Mike Gamble of the Ohio School for the Blind in 1:20.

Heavyweight Vern Reichmanis qualified for the district with two pins.

The seven Tiger grapplers will represent Circleville Friday and Saturday in the district tournament at Franklin Heights.

Pro Keglers Move Into Cleveland Area

CLEVELAND (AP)—The $500,000 tournament tour of the Professional Bowling Association moves to Eastgate Coliseum in suburban Mayfield Heights Wednesday. Prize money for the four-day session will total $25,000, which was the prize "pie" cut for winner in the tour at Akron last week.

Glen Blakesley of Kansas City won top prize money of $5,000 at Akron Saturday night, edging Tom Hennessey of St. Louis in the finals. Hennessey won $3,000 for second place, and Bob Stampe of Minneapolis took third place money of $1,500.

Fastest mile ever run by a thoroughbred in New York racing history was the 1:33 3-5 turned in by Bald Eagle in the Metropolitan Handicap at Aqueduct on Memorial Day, 1960.

A total of 112 stake races will be presented at New York's Aqueduct Belmont Park and Saratoga Springs tracks in 1962.

taken advantage of earlier storm warnings in order to knock the wind out of the Hurricane. The visitors managed a precarious 32-30 halftime lead and were pushed to the hilt to obtain it.

But that old third quarter nemesis hit the Tigers as it has so often this season. Playing in the shadow of Friday night's disaster, which saw them score only two points, the locals again were victims of a similar repeat.

Wilmington, seemingly aware of the Tigers' third period jinx, exploded for 21 points to open a 53-41 advantage by the time the quarter ended. CHS scored 11, a better performance than Friday's two, but the damage had been done.

ONCE the Hurricane had gained storm force, mainly behind the efforts of a boy named Jim Edwards, its path of destruction carried over in the fourth quarter without letting up. The able opponents, putting a clincher on their third straight SCO crown, ramblled for 24 points in the final eight minutes, although Circleville blasted away for 22 to make a battle of it down to the wire.

Edwards was as deadly as any foe the Tigers have faced this season. He tallied 30 points to make things miserable for the Roundtowners. In fact, he stole a giant portion of the thunder from teammate Marvin Gregory who is the league's second leading scorer and a formidable opponent at all times.

Circleville had its bright individual performances, too. Sam Weller, also a leading scorer in the SCO, found the range for 23 points and junior Clesson Thomas was a hustler all evening in racking 19.

But Wilmington's balanced scoring, a major factor for the champion Hurricane this season, was the difference as five cagers hit for 10 points or better. In addition to Edwards' 30, Gregory and Rick Baker connected for 11 each, and Phil Pidgeon and Dwight Wallace had 10 apiece.

The opening quarter ended in a 17-17 deadlock as both teams jockeyed for position. Seconds before the period ended Dick Kline tied things at 15-all with a bucket from down under. Thomas gave CHS its first lead when he connected from underneath, but Wilmington evened things on free throws by Baker and Gregory.

Circleville opened the second quarter with a lead on Weller's bunny before Larry Vanosey knotted things again at 20-20 with a jump shot. The count stayed close the remainder of the period as Weller fired away for a total of eight points and Baker gave the visitors a lift by scoring their last six points before the halftime buzzer.

THE TIGERS, apparently fired up to start the third frame, zipped into a 34-33 lead as Weller swished a set shot and Thomas made good on two free tosses. Jim Wellington and Kline hit consecutive foul attempts before that man Edwards evened the score at 36-36 with a jumper.

From that point the battle started to turn in favor of Wilmington. Playing the giants role was Edwards who cut loose for 11 points in the Hurricane's sudden and and swift offensive during the third canto. He came right back for seven in the final chapter.

Circleville's fourth quarter bid was paced by Weller who worked the nets for eight points and Thomas who scrapped for six.

For the Hurricane cagers it was their 12 league win this season and 27th straight over a three-year period. As usual their fast break was devastating as was their accuracy from the field and charity line.

The winners hit a scorching 46.7 per cent from the field on 27 goal in 58 attempts in addition to collecting 24 of 32 from the charity stripe. From the field Circleville hit 36.4 per cent on 23 of 63 completions. The locals had a neat 17 of 23 in the free throw department.

Circleville was forced to take a double loss for the second evening in a row. The Wilmington reserves captured a 67-38 verdict in the preliminary.

THE YOUNG visitors built up a 21-9 lead in the opening frame, widened the gap to 35-13 at intermission, then coasted in for the decision.

Doug Dunkel was a mainstay for the Kittens on four buckets and two free throws for 10 points. Skip Lutz and John Thomas came through with eight each.

Patton was high man for Wilmington with 19.

Circleville is scheduled Tuesday at Washington C. H. in a make-up game to wrap up the regular season. The next action then will come in the Central District Class AA tournament.

Tigermen Go Down Swinging In 77-63 Hurricane Battle

A valiant try to curb a roaring Wilmington Hurricane was a prime objective for the cage Tigermen of Circleville here Saturday night. But the gusty gale from Clinton County would not be denied in blowing to a 77-63 victory.

Seven Tigers Qualify for District Meet

The Circleville wrestling squad qualified seven men in the east sectional qualifying matches of the Central District Wrestling Tournament Saturday night.

The Roundtown grapplers registered six pins and one decision, in their bid for tournament honors.

Terry Kifer, after pinning his man in 2:50 Friday, came back Saturday to decision John Jordan of Groveport 7-0 in the 106-pound class.

In the 120, Jack Cook who drew a bye Friday pinned Dave Erwin of Bishop Hartly in 4:15.

TIM MOGAN registered a decision over Rudolph of Waterson Friday and pinned Pat Ferry of Waterson in 3:38 in the 127-pound class.

Tom Bivens, the only other Tiger to draw a bye Friday, pinned Mike Leppert of Worthington in 5:58 in the 133-pound class.

In the 138 pound class, Dever Jolly decided his opponent on Friday and pinned Hickman of Worthington in 3:38.

Tom Moore, wrestling in the 154-pound class, registered pins on both Friday and Saturday. In his first match he nailed McIntosh of Waterson in 1:45 and then returned Saturday to pin Mike Gamble of the Ohio School for the Blind in 1:20.

Heavyweight Vern Reichmanis qualified for the district with two pins.

The seven Tiger grapplers will represent Circleville Friday and Saturday in the district tournament at Franklin Heights.

Pro Keglers Move Into Cleveland Area

CLEVELAND (AP)—The $500,000 tournament tour of the Professional Bowling Association moves to Eastgate Coliseum in suburban Mayfield Heights Wednesday. Prize money for the four-day session will total $25,000, which was the prize "pie" cut for winner in the tour at Akron last week.

Glen Blakesley of Kansas City won top prize money of $5,000 at Akron Saturday night, edging Tom Hennessey of St. Louis in the finals. Hennessey won $3,000 for second place, and Bob Stampe of Minneapolis took third place money of $1,500.

Fastest mile ever run by a thoroughbred in New York racing history was the 1:33 3-5 turned in by Bald Eagle in the Metropolitan Handicap at Aqueduct on Memorial Day, 1960.

A total of 112 stake races will be presented at New York's Aqueduct Belmont Park and Saratoga Springs tracks in 1962.

taken advantage of earlier storm warnings in order to knock the wind out of the Hurricane. The visitors managed a precarious 32-30 halftime lead and were pushed to the hilt to obtain it.

But that old third quarter nemesis hit the Tigers as it has so often this season. Playing in the shadow of Friday night's disaster, third which saw them score only two points, the locals again were victims of a similar repeat.

Wilmington, seemingly aware of the Tigers' third period jinx, exploded for 21 points to open a 53-41 advantage by the time the quarter ended. CHS scored 11, a better performance than Friday's two, but the damage had been done.

ONCE the Hurricane had gained storm force, mainly behind the efforts of a boy named Jim Edwards, its path of destruction carried over in the fourth quarter without letting up. The able opponents, putting a clincher on their third straight SCO crown, rambled for 24 points in the final eight minutes, although Circleville blasted away for 22 to make a battle of it down to the wire.

Edwards was as deadly as any foe the Tigers have faced this season. He tallied 30 points to make things miserable for the Roundtowners. In fact, he stole a giant portion of the thunder from teammate Marvin Gregory who is the league's second leading scorer and a formidable opponent at all times.

Circleville had its bright individual performances, too. Sam Weller, also a leading scorer in the SCO, found the range for 23 points and junior Clesson Thomas was a hustler all evening in racking 19.

But Wilmington's balanced scoring, a major factor for the champion Hurricane this season, was the difference as five cagers hit for 10 points or better. In addition to Edwards' 30, Gregory and Rick Baker connected for 11 each, and Phil Pidgeon and Dwight Wallace had 10 apiece.

The opening quarter ended in a 17-17 deadlock as both teams jockeyed for position. Seconds before the period ended Dick Kline tied things at 15-all with a bucket from down under. Thomas gave CHS its first lead when he connected from underneath, but Wilmington evened things on free throws by Baker and Gregory.

Circleville opened the second quarter with a lead on Weller's bunny before Larry Vanscoy knotted things again at 20-20 with a jump shot. The count stayed close the remainder of the period as Weller fired away for a total of eight points and Baker gave the visitors a lift by scoring their last six points before the halftime buzzer.

THE TIGERS, apparently fired up to start the third frame, zipped into a 34-33 lead as Weller swished a set shot and Thomas made good on two free tosses. Jim Wellington and Kline hit consecutive foul attempts before that man Edwards evened the score at 36-36 with a jumper.

Plum Criticizes Brown's Coaching

CLEVELAND (AP) — Quarterback Milt Plum says the Cleveland Browns are in a rut, and he blames the situation on the fact that coach Paul Brown runs the club from the bench.

In an unusually frank interview, the 27-year-old former Penn State star said he feels the complete mastermind of the team from the bench deadens the enthusiasm of the Browns.

Representing Kiwanis are E. R. Bennet, Keith Wagner and Ralph Starkey.

Mac Scramble for Berths In Tourneys Starts Today

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The annual mad scramble between the NCAA and the NIT to fill 22 spots in their post-season basketball tournaments gets underway today. The two tournaments have an armed truce that prohibited them from sending out bids earlier.

The NCAA will select 10 teams for its at-large group to complement the 15 league champions that go into the tournament which starts next month and culminates in the championship game in Louisville on March 24.

The NIT, held in New York's Madison Square Garden, plucks out 12 teams that are not committed to the NCAA. Each year the going has been getting tougher for the NIT.

Virtually none of the candidates for either at-large berths in the NCAA or the NIT has spectacular records. They show a minimum of two defeats and range all the way up to nine setbacks.

Among the major teams that could be tapped for either tournament are Houston (18-5), St. Bonaventure (13-6), Boston College (12-5), New York U. (13-3), Villanova (16-5), Duquesne (16-5) Holy Cross (16-3), Dayton (15

"Talk About Discounts!"

Just eight years ago we started selling all fast moving parts at great discounts.

During this time with the aid of the International Harvester Company, we have saved the farmers of Pickaway County over $48,000.00. At the same time we have become one of the largest parts depot and implement service centers in the state. Maybe, you too, should check our prices.

Ohio Conference Set For Annual Playoff

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio Wesleyan cut a 15 - 1 swath through the Ohio Conference to win its first basketball crown since 1949 - and now it must do it all over if it is to represent the sprawling league in the NCAA small-college tourney scrap.

The third annual conference tournament is on this weekend, and the victor goes to the regional NCAA meet at Akron March 9-10 against the Southern Intercollegiate Conference winner and two at-large teams.

The Bishops despite their fine record, face some bitter opposition in the conference tournament won the last two years by Wittenberg. The Tigers went on last year to win the small college national title.

Eight of the conference teams meet at Capital University this weekend, the other seven at Akron University. They whittle each field to two survivors, who then meet Friday, March 2, to determine the finalists at Akron March 3.

The Southern Division, where only two of the eight failed to break even in conference play, appears to have the top - heavy talent. Four of the seven at Akron had losing seasons.

Here are the tournament pairings, as made Sunday by the conference representatives:

At Capital University
Thursday: 7 p.m., Muskingum (9-4) vs. Marietta (5-5); 9 p.m., Kenyon (8-5) vs. Denison (8-6).
Friday: 7 p.m., Wittenberg (10-2) vs. Otterbein (3-12); 9 p.m., Ohio Wesleyan (15-1) vs. Capital (6-8).

Saturday: 7 p.m., Muskingum-Marietta winner vs. Ohio Wesleyan-Capital winner; 9 p.m., Kenyon - Denison winner vs. Wittenberg-Otterbein winner.

Friday, March 2: 8:15 p.m., Saturday's winners meet, victor to March 3 finals at Akron.

At Akron University
Friday: 6 p.m., Mount Union (3-10) vs. Baldwin-Wallace (5-2); 8 p.m., Akron (10-4) vs. Wooster (2-9); 10 p.m., Oberlin (5-5) vs. Heidelberg (2-11).

Saturday: 7 p.m., Hiram (2-9) vs. Mount Union-Baldwin-Wallace winner; 9 p.m., winners of Friday's 8 and 10 p.m. games meet.

Friday, March 2: 8:15 p.m., Saturday's winners meet, victor to March 3 finals at Akron.

Saturday's Answer

Cincinnati To Meet Bradley Tonight in Tell-Tale Battle

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—This is "do or die" day for Cincinnati University's NCAA Champion Bearcats.

And Ohio State's Big Ten champs, victimized in overtime in the NCAA finals by the 'Cats last season, will be rooting for the Queen City club to make it a "do" day.

Bradley, pace-setter in the Missouri Valley loop with a 9-1 record and a 70-68 winner over the 'Cats at Peoria earlier in the campaign, invades the University of Cincinnati fieldhouse tonight. Cincinnati, 8-2 in the league and 21-2 overall, must win this one or drop out of the title fight—and surrender its NCAA crown without a struggle.

But the figures favor coach Ed Jucker's jolters. The Bearcats haven't been beaten on their home boards since 1957 — they have an unsullied streak of 57 going there — and the invading Braves will be minus 6-foot-8 Joe Strawder, sensational sophomore center.

A Cincinnati win would throw the race into a deadlock. Saturday the Cincinnati team entertains Wichita—which won the first round tilt 52-51.

Ohio State wants another crack at the 'Cats, preferably in the NCAA finals, and is cheering for the downstate team in the week's pair of big ones.

The Bucks, riding a 25-game Big Ten streak and comfortably out front in the title race after whipping Michigan 72 - 57 and Michigan State 80-72 last week, are idle until Saturday when they entertain Illinois in a 4:30 p.m. regionally televised encounter.

The Mid-American and Ohio Conference title races are over, despite a few scattered games still on the slate.

Bowling Green won its first outright Mid-American crown Saturday by trouncing Ohio University — king the last two seasons—83-58. That left the Falcons with a 10-1 record and the laurels, although they play second - place Western Michigan (6-3) next Saturday in the windup.

The Bee-Gees tied Miami for the Mid-Am title in 1959 and won the playoff, but this is their first unblemished crown since entering the loop in 1953.

Ohio Wesleyan also turned back its most menacing foe, beating Baldwin-Wallace 88-65, to annex the Ohio Conference championship held the last three years by Wittenberg. It was the first title for the Bishops since 1949 and their fourth in conference history. They compiled a 15-1 record, losing only to Muskingum, in the race to the throne. Wittenberg finished second with 10-2.

Ohio Northern was upset 97-87 by Defiance and fell out of a tie with Ashland for the Mid - Ohio League lead—but the Polar Bears can get back into the deadlock when they invade Ashland Saturday. If the Eagles win, it's all over.

Dayton authorized one of the season's big upsets Saturday when the Flyers turned back ninth-ranked Duquesne 71-48. In one 17-minute stretch the Dukes scored only one field goal. The verdict just about clinched a journey bid for the Flyers.

Moyer Seeks Title Match With Fullmer

NEW YORK (AP)—At 22, baby-faced Denny Moyer is hopeful of getting a title fight with NBA middleweight champion Gene Fullmer in April. At 41, Sugar Ray Robinson, once the greatest fighter in the ring, is all washed up even if he won't admit it.

Promoter Norm Rothchild of Syracuse, N.Y., who helps promote fights involving Fullmer, said there was a possibility of a Moyer-Fullmer title scrap in April.

"It would go great out West," said Rothchild, an associate of Fullmer's manager, Marv Jensen. "There are three places in Montana—Bozeman, Missoula and Billings—and Las Vegas and Denver, which would like the fight."

Moyer, of Portland, Ore., squared accounts with Robinson by belting him freely en route to a one-sided victory in their television 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden Saturday night. Robinson won a close unpopular decision over Moyer last Oct. 21.

Former welterweight and middleweight champion, Robinson looked like the boy in against the man. The fast, stocky Oregonian, although bleeding from the nose from the first round on, smashed Robinson repeatedly with right-hand lads to the head and raked over his aging body with short left hooks and jolting rights.

The once slick Sugar was staggered four times—in the third, fifth, ninth and 10th rounds. In the ninth his left leg buckled from a body blow and in the 10th he was a desperate man just hoping to stay up until the final bell.

The verdicts for Moyer were: referee Art Mercante 7-2-1, judge Leo Birnbaum and judge Tony Rossi, 7-3 each. The AP card had it 7-2-1.

Phil Rodgers Pockets Purse At Tucson

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Positive thinking, and phenomenal putting, carried Phil Rodgers to a three-stroke victory in the $20,000 Tucson Open golf tournament.

The brash, 23-year-old pro from La Jolla, Calif., grabbed top prize money of $2,800 Sunday by dropping a 65-foot wedge shot for an eagle 3 on the 18th hole and a final round 66.

His 72-hole total over the 6,484-yard, par-70 El Rio course was a 17-under-par 263.

By the time he reached the 18th, Rodgers needed only par to win. After playing par golf and trailing Buddy Sullivan of Yuba City, Calif., by one stroke, Rodgers began his victory march on the 10th tee.

On the 10th, he asked host pro Ray Akana for a report on "ores." "Now that I know what I need," Rodgers replied, "I'll get it." He dropped a 12-foot putt for a birdie on the next hole and went on to a 4-under-par 31 on the back nine.

Jim Ferrier, at 46 the oldest pro in the tourney and troubled by a stiff neck, finished second with a 266 and $1,900.

Gene Littler remained as the tour's top money winner with the $1,175 he, Charles Sifford, Paul Harney and Buddy Sullivan each picked up for third place 267's.

Littler now has won $14,186.66. Rodgers moved into second ahead of Arnold Palmer with tour earnings of $13,363.57.

A total of 5,730,060 people attended the thoroughbred races at Aqueduct, Belmont Park and Saratoga during New York State's 220-day season in 1961.

NEW YORK (AP) — The day-time serials—sometimes referred to as washboard weepers or soap operas—are, as usual, busily reflecting the day by day life of the average American family.

Ricky, in "Love of Life," has been unjustly accused of murdering his boss. One can only hope his wife will stick by him through the ordeal because when the killing took place, innocent Ricky was dead drunk and with the "other woman," his only ally.

On "Search for Tomorrow," the reformed alcoholic husband of Rich Allison slipped back into his cups just before he was scheduled to make an important speech and staggered out of the meeting.

Robin, on "Guiding Light," is now married to an older, rich, and terribly jealous man, but Michael, her first husband—youthful and good looking—is back on the scene again. Robin still seems faithful to Alex, her current spouse, but it's a dangerous situation.

Young "Doctor Malone's" wife has just had a dreadful time having a baby, and homicidal Claire, who is the wife of somebody else in the story, is in a mental institution.

Teen Dance Planned by Police Groups

A new form of entertainment for the younger set is in the making here Sunday through the efforts of the Circleville Fraternal Order of Police and Fraternal Order of Police Associates.

The two police groups will sponsor a Teen-Age Dance at Circle D Recreation on E. Main St. Dancing will be enjoyed from 2 to 5 p. m.

Music will be provided by Carl Hawks and his Dynamics. A small admission fee will be charged to cover the costs of the orchestra.

FOP spokesmen said they hope the new form of entertainment for youngsters of school age will become a monthly event. They said it is the first time this type of program has been offered here. If the initial dance is successful the program will be continued, they added.

REFRESHMENTS will be served and door prizes will be provided by local merchants. There will be no charge for use of the Circle D dance floor.

According to the FOP, the Teen-Age Dance will replace the annual Policemen's Ball.

WHO DAT?—Why, it's Woody Hayes, Ohio State's famed football coach, when he was a freshman grifter at Denison University back in 1931.

Liquor Store To Close

The State Liquor Store, 108 E. Franklin St., will be closed Thursday in observance of Washington's Birthday.

THESE FIGURES from General Motors make an interesting comparison as you follow the tug-o-war between management and labor in the auto industry. The hourly pay of the auto plant worker has gone up more than three and one-half times the pay of a quarter-century ago, and the price of the lowest-priced two-door has nearly quadrupled. However, the worker also has many fringe benefits, such as hospital insurance, unemployment compensation, pension, vacation pay, overtime, life insurance, etc. (Central Press)

Oil Becoming Major Weapon In Russian Economic Move

By JAMES H. WINCHESTER
Central Press Association
Correspondent

WASHINGTON — In the current world struggle between the ideologies of Communism and democracy, energy supplies are playing an increasingly important role in determining which side will eventually gain economic, political and military supremacy.

In Russia's economic moves against the Free World, oil is a major weapon. Her rate of oil development is so great that this product could be the key factor in the economic battle shaping up for the 1960s.

The Soviet Union no longer has to acquire her energy by conquest. She is marshalling all her strength from within her own borders, and she has plenty of excess product with which to glut the competitive markets outside the Soviet sphere.

Russia is drilling a great number of wildcat oil wells. The unsuccessful Russian geologist no longer fears the proverbial Siberian assignment if he drills a dry hole.

Russians, through this increased exploration activity, are enhancing their chances of uncovering vast new reserves. And they have — within their own borders — 70 per cent more hunting ground than exists within the entire United States.

Just how formidable is the Russian oil threat?

Here are some facts: In 1950, the United States produced seven times as much oil as Russia. Last year, the U.S.'s seven million barrels per day was less than two and a half times Russia's daily output.

However, this is not the end of the story. Russia's published seven-year plan — ending in 1965 — calls for approximately doubling present oil exports to an eventual

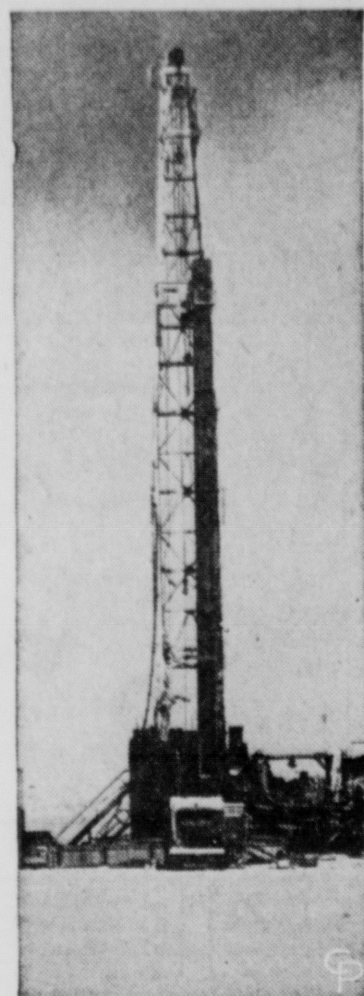

County Receives Welfare Money

Pickaway County received $13,905.18 in a recent distribution of utilities excise taxes for poor relief purposes, according to State Auditor James A. Rhodes.

The checks mailed to the 88 county offices were the final distributions of the 1.65 per cent utility taxes collected during 1961, and brings to $23,760,280 the total distribution of these taxes for poor relief.

The current distribution, Rhodes pointed out, is the one-half of one per cent tax which is distributed upon the basis of the poor relief expenditures the previous year in the counties.

The total distribution of $23,760,280 was made out of the total tax of $43,864,928 of which the state's general revenue fund shared to the extent of $20,104,647.

Modern drilling rigs, such as this, are being used by the Russians in their search for oil.

goal of 900,000 barrels a day. At present, Russia's share of the world oil trade is small 8 about four-and-a-half per cent.

If Russia can live up to her intended goal — and all signs point to the fact that she can — her exports will increase to a minimum level representing 14 per cent of the world market. This amount will, indeed, make her a major competitor.

It is known that Russia intends to make her oil a thorn in the side of the free enterprise system. In 1961, for example, she offered some oil in European markets at $1.10 a barrel, a price equal to production costs — no profit!

Russia can afford to do this because it makes for political advantage. But even with the price dumping, Russia still does not emerge a great economic loser. Two practices compensate.

First, she overprices oil to satellite countries, who are forced to buy Russian products. Second, Russia can absorb economic loss through lucrative trades — oil for Cuban sugar, Iceland fish, Egyptian cotton and many others.

In this manner, Soviet crude has captured 10 per cent of West Germany's domestic consumption, 11 per cent in Sweden, 20 per cent in Italy, 25 per cent in Yugoslavia, 32 per cent in Egypt, 50 per cent in Greece, 77 per cent in Finland and 85 per cent in Iceland.

Gas Tax Revenues Distributed by State

State Auditor James A. Rhodes has announced the distribution of $5,952,944 in gasoline tax revenues to the political subdivisions of the state.

The current distribution, together with the January distribution of $2,290,800 to the counties and townships, brings the total distribution for the current calendar year to $8,243,755.

A breakdown of the February distribution, the first for the municipalities, showed that the cities and villages received the lion's share of $3,131,344, or 52.6 per cent. These payments ranged from $10 for the village of Clifton in Clark County to $342,831 for Cleveland.

Balance of the February distribution included $1,760,000 divided among the 88 counties at the rate of $20,000 per county and another $1,061,600 for the townships at the rate of $800 each.

All of the funds are earmarked specifically for the improvement and maintenance of highways in the respective subdivisions.

Fund Dinner Meeting Set

Worker Recognition,
Election Scheduled

A preview of the 1962 Pickaway County Community Fund will be unfolded Tuesday night when the area group conducts its annual meeting at the First EUB Church Service Center on E. Main St.

The session will be in the form of a dinner meeting. A special highlight will be the presentation of awards to the volunteer workers who aided the successful 1961 fund campaign. The dinner will start at 6:30.

At their last meeting, fund officials voted to change meeting dates from the third Thursday to the third Tuesday of February, August and November. Tomorrow night's session will mark the first meeting.

In addition to recognition of workers, an annual report will be submitted and an election of trustees and officers will be held. John Elam of Columbus, chairman of the Franklin County United Appeals Fund, will be guest speaker.

Tickets may be obtained from David Harmon at the First National Bank.

1961 Per Capita Cost of Liquor Is $10.13 Here

Liquor sales declined in Ohio during 1961. However, Pickaway County's total liquor bill during the past year could have purchased two fifths of liquor for every man, woman and child within the county.

According to a report today from State Auditor James A. Rhodes, Pickaway County's 1961 per capita liquor expenditures was $10.13, based on a population of 36,878.

In terms of volume consumed on a state-wide basis, the auditor's report disclosed that Ohio's estimated 9,933,522 population drank an average of 8.75 pints each, which was a decline of .54 of a pint from the average of 9.29 pints consumed during 1960.

Store and agency sales of liquor in Pickaway County during 1961 totaled $220,589; wholesale and wholesale stores handled $103,669 in liquor; and the actual total sales during the year were $324,258.

The smallest per capita expenditure of $5.09 was found in Holmes County, and this was a decline of 86 cents from 1960. Holmes replaced Adams County which in 1960 had a per capita expenditure of only $4.82.

Revival Services To Be Continued

The Revival which began at the Church of Christ in Christian Union, 436 E. Ohio St., Wednesday evening will continue through this week.

Continuation of the Revival is due to the increased interest and attendance. More than 300 persons attended the service Sunday evening.

The Rev. A. B. Maloy of Wellston former pastor of the Hamden EUE Church, will continue to preach in services which begin at 7:30 p. m. The public is invited.

Area C Scout Report Meeting Set Wednesday at Washington

All Team Captains and workers, in the public phase section of the Boy Scout Camp Development Campaign in Area C will hold their first report meeting 7:30 p. m. Wednesday in the Farm Bureau Building in Washington C. H., according to an announcement today by Ed Grigg, area chairman.

Area C includes Pickaway, Fayette and Highland Counties. Progress reports will be received from each section of the Public Phase of the campaign. These sections are the Scout Family, Primary Gifts and General Public.

To date, through the efforts of the Initial Gifts Phase which includes the Industrial, Commercial and Major Gifts Divisions, a total in excess of $426,700 has already been subscribed.

MONEY raised will be used to remodel Camp Lazarus in Delaware County, build two new camps on Greenhills Reservation in Hocking County, and establish minimum facilities on the five Council-owned weekend or short-term camp sites.

These facilities are needed for the Scouts in Central Ohio Council. Present equipment will accommodate only 22 per cent of the boys eligible and desiring to go camping, according to Scout officials.

Report meetings will continue weekly in each area, at the same time and place for a total of four meetings.

Kempton Jerseys Receive Awards

A herd of registered Jersey cows, owned by Donald Kempton, near Williamsport, has been awarded certificates for outstanding milk and butter fat production.

The herd was recognized for an average production of 8,884 pounds of milk containing 471 pounds of butterfat per cow. The herd of 17 Jerseys recently completed a 12-month test period under the supervision of Ohio State University in cooperation with The American Jersey Cattle Club.

Kempton received a Gold Star Herd Award for the outstanding production records of his herd.

One of the registered Jerseys, Souvenir Viatrix, was awarded a Ton of Gold Certificate. The cow produced 2,013 pounds of butterfat from 46,022 pounds of milk in four years. The certificate was presented by AJCC officials.
